FORM 10.03-H: WARNING CONCERNING THE ATTACHED PROTECTION ORDER

NQTE: Rule 10.03 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio requires this Warning to be attached to the FRONT of all protection orders issued pursuant to R.C. 2903,213 and 2903,214 by the courts of the State of Ohio. TO BE USED WITH FORMS 10.03-B, 10.03-E, and 10.03-F.

WARNING TO RESPONDENT/ DEFENDANT

Violating the attached Protection Order is a crime, punishable by imprisonment or fine or both, and can cause your bond to be revoked or result in a contempt of court citation against you.

This Protection Order is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and U.S. Territories pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2265. Violating this Protection Order may subject you to federal charges and punishment.

As a result of this Order, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney.

Only the Court can change this Order. The Petitioner/Alleged Victim cannot give you permission to violate this order. If you go near the Petitioner or other protected persons, even with their consent, you may be arrested. You act at your own risk if you disregard this WARNING. If you want to change the Order you must ask the Court.

WARNING TO PETITIONER / ALLEGED VICTIM

You cannot change the terms of this Order by your words or actions. This Order cannot be changed by either party without obtaining a written court order.

NOTICE TO ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES AND OFFICERS

The attached Protection Order is enforceable in all Jurisdictions. Violating this Protection Order, whether it is a criminal or civil Protection Order, is a crime under R.C. 2919.27. Law enforcement officers with powers to arrest for violations of the Ohio Revised Code must enforce the terms of this Protection Order as required by R.C. 2919.27, 2903.213, and 2903.214. If you have reasonable grounds to believe that Respondent/Defendant has violated this Protection Order, in Ohio under R.C. 2935.03, you should arrest and detain Respondent/Defendant until you can obtain a warrant. Federal and state laws prohibit charging a fee for service of this order.

FORM 10,03-F; CIVIL STALKING PROTECTION ORDER OR CIVIL SEXUALLY ORIENTED OFFENSE PROTECTION ORDER FULL HEARING

FORM 10.03-H: WARNING CONCERNING THE ATTACHED PROTECTION ORDER

NOTE: Rule 10.03 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio requires this Warning to be attached to the FRONT of all protection orders issued pursuant to R.C. 2903.213 and 2903.214 by the courts of the State of Ohio. TO BE USED WITH FORMS 10.03-B, 10.03-E, and 10.03-F.

WARNING TO RESPONDENT/ DEFENDANT

Violating the attached Protection Order is a crime, punishable by imprisonment or fine or both, and can cause your bond to be revoked or result in a contempt of court citation against you.

This Protection Order is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and U.S. Territories pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2265. Violating this Protection Order may subject you to federal charges and punishment.

As a result of this Order, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney.

Only the Court can change this Order. The Petitioner/Alleged Victim cannot give you permission to violate this order. If you go near the Petitioner or other protected persons, even with their consent, you may be arrested. You act at your own risk if you disregard this WARNING. If you want to change the Order you must ask the Court.

WARNING TO PETITIONER / ALLEGED VICTIM

You cannot change the terms of this Order by your words or actions. This Order cannot be changed by either party without obtaining a written court order.

NOTICE TO ALL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES AND OFFICERS

The attached Protection Order is enforceable in all jurisdictions. Violating this Protection Order, whether it is a criminal or civil Protection Order, is a crime under R.C. 2919.27. Law enforcement officers with powers to arrest for violations of the Ohio Revised Code must enforce the terms of this Protection Order as required by R.C. 2919.27, 2903.213, and 2903.214. If you have reasonable grounds to believe that Respondent/Defendant has violated this Protection Order, in Ohio under R.C. 2935.03, you should arrest and detain Respondent/Defendant until you can obtain a warrant. Federal and state laws prohibit charging a fee for service of this order.

Ohio Stalking & Menacing Laws

Menacing - Penalties

If you are being accused of mensing that means that the prosecution believes it can prove that you led someone to believe you would cause harm to them, their property, or a family member. Menacing is typically considered a 4th Degree Misdemeanor which carries a potential sentence of 30 days in jail and fines of up to $250.

Ref:

Aggravated menacing is slightly more serious than menacing and involves the state of the believing that you would cause serious harm to them, their property, or a family member of the menacing is typically a 1st degree misdemeanor and carries a potential sentence of up to 6 months in job and up to 61,900 in fines.

Ref.

MEMMeing by Stalking - Laws & Penalties

Menacing by stalking involves a repeated pattern of menacing behavior. If you are accused of stalking in Ohio, the presecution will have to prove that you engaged in a pattern of conduct that knowingly caused another person to fear physical harm or mental distress.

In most cases, menacing by stalking is a 1st degree misdemeanor which carries a potential 6 months jail sentence and fines up to $1,000.

However, the stalking charge may be elevated to a 4th degree felony if the victim is a minor, this is not your first conviction for stalking, you commit the offense in direct violation of a protection order, you were in possession of a deadly weapon at the time of offense, or you have a history of violence.

Felonies in the 4th degree carry a potential sentence of 6-18 months in prison and lines reaching up to $5,000.

Officer Jacobs soon arrived on scene at Clemente's residence and observed several individual partygoers standing around in yard at the East State of home. Officer Jacobs located Mr. Clemente and advised him of the complaint. Mr. Clemente stated the large trolley/bus in question was a limousine with approximately 20 subjects. He stated the limousine parked behind his Hubbard City Fire sports utility vehicle located approximately 50 yards West of his driveway access on the South side berm of the roadway. He stated the occupants of the limousine exited the vehicle in an effort to join the gathering. He stated the occupants of the limousine exited the vehicle in an effort to join the gathering. He stated the subjects then left in the limousine heading east bound on East Liberty Street. Mr. Clemente and his wife allege Mr. Krilich witnessed the limousine leave the scene and attempt to chase it east bound in his truck. They (Clemente's) state he (Mr. Krilich) then pulled into a miscellanies driveway, waited for the limousine to return heading West bound and continue to chase it back into the city limits. They state he returned shortly there after to his residence. All information gained from investigation was forwarded to Officer Pleton and Sgt. Fisher. Note from Janet Agueda, Administrative Assistant, dated 12-27-11: The above narrative was typed on 09-09-09 by Officer Jacobs. On the above date and time Officers were dispatched to 723 E. Liberty St. In reference to a male (Rick Krilich) harassing his neighbor Kristen Clemente by taking pictures of her. The R/O arrived on scene and was met outside by Kristen Clemente. Ms. Clemente stated that she had a male friend Scott Walker over her house. When they were outside a flash went off from her neighbor's window. Mr. Walker then blew his horn one time. Ms. Clemente then stated that Mr. Krilich then came outside waving her to come over. Ms. Clemente then stated that she told Mr. Walker to leave before he would go over to fight Mr. Krilich.

This Officer, Officer B. Greene, and Hubbard City Officer B. Thompson and Officer B. Fisher then went to Mr. Kriich's residence. Mr. Kriich stated that he took a picture of Mr. Walker because he had been one of the cars that had driven by his house and beeped their hom. Mr. Kriich then stated that he went outside after Mr. Walker blew his horn. He stated that Mr. Walker allegedly threatened to kick his ass. Mr. Kriich then showed the Officers the video of what just took place. In the video Mr. Walker asked him if he had a problem and if he wanted to come over and talk about it.

This Officer then went to 34 Forest Hill Dr. to obtain a statement from Mr. Walker on what just happened. Mr. Walker stated that he was in Kristen Clemente's driveway when Mr. Kriich took a picture of both of them. He stated that Mr. Kriich then came outside waving his middle finger. Mr. Walker then asked him if he had a problem and if he wanted to come over and talk about it. Mr. Kriich did not reply he just stood there with his middle finger in the air. He then stated that he was there for two more minutes then left.

Officers then notified dispatch and cleared.
